

WELLINGTON STILL IN WINNING VEIN

WELLINGTON, leaders in the men's "A" grade Spring table tennis roster, continued on their winning way this week when they easily accounted for Liberals I, 10-1.

Tony Roob and Tony Dalton coasted home in all their matches defeating the Liberals combination of Stennard, Calvert and Jones and pairing to win a doubles.

Wellington's third player, schoolboy Doug McLean, has developed a devastating loop drive and attacked brilliantly to sweep through Calvert and Jones and was unlucky to go down to Stennard, 19-21, in the third game.

In the other match Derwent I, strengthened by the return of their captain, Neil Harwood, beat Liberals II, 7-4.

Harwood was unbeaten, while Graeme Travers did best for Liberals, downing Ian Davey and Dennis Jones. Laurie Wharmby

(Liberals) scored a good straight-games win over Davey.

The top team in women's "A" grade, York, this week defeated Tullah, 7-4.

Meg Jarvis and Sue Long starred for York, winning two matches each, but both went down to Lorraine Matthews, who played magnificently for Tullah.

Jenny Matthews shone for Devon, who defeated Akuna, 6-5. Miss Matthews gave her best performance for the season, scoring three wins including a fine win over Marlene Quinn 21-17 in the third game.

In the other match, Nimba outplayed Telita, 6-5. Rita Packer won all her rubbers with a little in reserve.
